Featured Garden Centers

• Wardell's Farm Market

Our first stop is to Wardell's Farm Market in Waterville, your garden center for all four seasons. Since 1987, Tom Wardell has raised high quality, homegrown bedding plants, hanging baskets and vegetables. In addition to perennials, nursery stock and a large variety of garden supplies, Wardell's features a lovely display garden, dynamite window boxes and planters, fall hayrides and a pumpkin patch, and most recently, a festive Christmas Shoppe which opened in 2007.

• Wolf's Blooms and Berries

Our next stop takes us to Wolf's Blooms and Berries, owned and operated by Jim and Sue Wolf of Bowling Green. Wolf's specializes in home grown strawberries, unique combination planters and hanging baskets, but has a wide variety of specialty annuals, accent plants, perennials, herbs and vegetables for your garden. Knowledgeable staff are always available to assist you in potting and bedding design.

• Hoen's Greenhouse and Garden Center

Our final stop of the day takes us to Hoen's Greenhouse and Garden Center in Holland, owned and operated by Bob and Theresa Hoen along with their children. Hoen's sells superior quality home grown produce, with strawberries and pumpkin picking for the public, perennials, annuals, shrubs, rose bushes, vegetable plants and more. Hoen's pride themselves on their enormous variety of beautiful hanging baskets, potted flowers, and specialize in combination container gardens. In order to foster knowledge & ignite passion for gardening, Hoen's offers Seminars & Hands-on experience for customers of ALL ages. With one visit to Hoen's Greenhouse & Garden Center you'll see why "We Grow the Best for You"!
